

BerlitzEnglish Level 3: Web site audio script

Chapter 1

Chapter 1, Vocabulary 2

1.
A: My wife and I would like to invite you to our home on Saturday.
B: That's very kind of you. I'd love to come.
2.
A: Would you like to come to my birthday party next week?
B: I'd love to.
3.
A: Do you want to come for a drink with us later?
B: Sorry. I have to stay late tonight.
4.
A: We're having a retirement party for Janet on Monday. Can you make it?
B: I'd really like to, but I'll be out of town that day.
5.
A: Let's get together for lunch this week.
B: Great. What day?
6.
A: Are you coming to our party Saturday night?
B: Thank you for inviting me, but I'm afraid I can't.

Chapter 1, Grammar 1

1. Are you celebrating your tenth wedding anniversary this year?
2. Martina is coming to the office party.
3. Frank can't come to the picnic on Sunday.
4. Where do you want to have your wedding?
5. I am going to be busy that day.
6. Can you bring some food or drinks to the party?

Chapter 1, Conversation 1

1. I'd like to invite you to dinner on Saturday.
2. I'm afraid I can't on Saturday.

Chapter 1, Conversation 2

- A: I'm having a party for Nick on Friday. Can you come?
B: I'd love to. What's the occasion?
A: We're celebrating Nick's promotion.
B: Oh, yeah. I heard he was promoted to Senior Producer.
A: Don't tell him about the party. It's going to be a surprise.
B: I won't say anything. What should I bring?
A: You don't need to bring anything. I'm ordering the food, and Peter's taking care of the drinks.
B: Well, let me know if I can help, OK?
A: OK, thanks. See you Friday.

Chapter 1, Comprehension 1

- A: Hey Brian. Thanks for coming to our party.
B: Thanks for inviting me. I had a great time.
A: Did you really?
B: Yes. Your friends—really nice.
A: Well, so are yours. Did they have fun?

B: Yes. They said they loved the music. Didn't you see? They danced all night.
A: Hey, I saw you talking to Michelle.
B: Did she say anything?
A: Maybe.
B: Maybe?
A: She said you were a lot of fun and a good dancer.
B: Uh. Yeah. She's nice, too.

Chapter 1, Speaking / Role Play

A: Hey, there. Congratulations on your retirement!
B: Thanks. Can you come to my retirement party on Tuesday?
A: I'd love to, but I'm going to be away that day.
B: Oh, that's OK. I understand.
A: I would like to take you to lunch before your last day, though.
B: Thanks. That would be nice.
A: How about Thursday?
B: Thursday's good. What time?
A: Shall we say 12:30?
B: 12:30 is perfect.
A: Great. I'll stop by your office on Thursday then.

Chapter 2

Chapter 2, Vocabulary 1

1. These salmon rolls are delicious!
2. I'd like a scone, please, and an espresso.
3. The fried tofu here is excellent.
4. I think I'll have some pasta.
5. Is the shrimp grilled or fried?
6. Do you have shepherd's pie?
7. Just a hamburger and fries for me, please.
8. We'd both like to have the prime rib, please.

Chapter 2, Grammar 1

1. Ben's Diner is more popular than Al's Grill.
2. The hamburger and the salad are $5.00 each.
3. I eat sushi once a week, and I eat fast food once a week.
4. Margaret is a better cook than Paul.
5. An espresso is stronger than a cappuccino.
6. Tofu is healthier than French fries.

Chapter 2, Conversation 1

1. What kind of food do you feel like having?
2. I feel like having some seafood.

Chapter 2, Conversation 2

A: I'd like to invite you to dinner Friday night.
B: Thank you. That sounds great.
A: There's a British pub on River Road that I think you would like.
B: Do you mean Big Ben's?
A: Yes. Do you know it?
B: Yes, I love the fish and chips there.
A: So do I. On Fridays they have live music.
B: That sounds like fun. Do you want to meet there?

A: No, no. I'll pick you up at 7:00.

B: Sounds great. I'm looking forward to it.

Chapter 2, Comprehension 1

A: Hi, Phil, what are you doing?

B: I'm planning Jim's retirement party.

A: Are you going to have it in a restaurant?

B: Yes, but I can't decide which one. Do you have any ideas?

A: Hmm ... How about Mino Sushi House?

B: That's a great restaurant, but I'm not sure everyone likes sushi.

A: How about Winston Steakhouse? Or the Fishery? That's an excellent restaurant.

B: The Fishery doesn't have as many choices as the steakhouse.

A: That's true. You can get steak, lamb chops, veal, fish, or lobster at Winston.

B: Or even a salad. My wife loves their grilled chicken salad.

A: I do, too.

B: OK – Winston Steakhouse it is. I just hope they can seat a group of 50. I'd better call them today to find out.

Chapter 2, Speaking / Role Play

A: Do you feel like going out for dinner tonight?

B: I don't know. Where would we go?

A: How about Casa Mia for a pizza?

B: I had pizza for lunch.

A: Well, then, how about the new steakhouse downtown?

B: No, I feel like having a light dinner.

A: Do you want to go to the vegetarian place for a salad?

B: The salads there aren't as good as the salads you make.

A: Well, we could stay home, and I could make us a salad.

B: That sounds great.

A: All right. You take care of the drinks, and I'll start working on that salad.

Chapter 3

Chapter 3, Vocabulary 1

1.

A: Are we going to make next week's deadline on the Shipley presentation?

B: I don't think so.

A: I'll ask Mr. Whitson if we can have a few more days.

2.

A: Tomorrow is the deadline for the status report.

B: I know. I'll have it ready in the morning.

3.

A: We're going to miss the deadline on the Dupont project.

B: How can we speed things up?

A: I need some help with the research.

B: I'll see what I can do.

4.

A: What's the status of the Rollins report?

B: I'm going to finish it today.

A: Really? It's not due until next week.

Chapter 3, Vocabulary 3

1. What's the status of the project?

2. Do everything you can to finish the proposal by tomorrow.

3. Can you estimate a budget for the project yet?
4. Can we still meet Monday's deadline?
5. You said in your phone message that you're behind schedule with the work plan.
6. What's slowing the project down?
7. The design for the brochure is due tomorrow. How are you doing with it?
8. Nice job on the project!

Chapter 3, Grammar 3

1. project
2. project
3. progress
4. progress
5. produce
6. produce

Chapter 3, Conversation 1

1. How much more time do you need on the Hilliard project?
2. I think I'll be able to finish it by next week.

Chapter 3, Conversation 2

- A: How's the Underwood project coming?
B: We're a bit behind schedule.
A: How far behind schedule?
B: About three weeks.
A: Three weeks? What seems to be the problem?
B: I don't know. Everything is just taking longer than I planned.
A: I don't think it's going to work out with you as project manager.
B: What do you mean? Are you firing me?
A: No, I'd like you to focus on the research. We'll let Greg project-manage.
B: I'll work harder. I'll come in every weekend.
A: I'm sorry, Mike. We just can't miss this deadline.

Chapter 3, Comprehension 1

- A: So, how are things going with the Schiffer account?
B: Well, I think we have a very strong campaign, but...
A: ...but?
B: ...the art department is late with the brochure designs.
A: How late?
B: They're due tomorrow, and they haven't even started yet.
A: I'll talk to the art director.
B: OK
A: What about the copy?
B: David finished the final draft yesterday. He gave it to me this morning.
A: How is it?
B: It's excellent.
A: Good. When's our presentation?
B: Thursday at 10:00.
A: Great. Let's meet again on Wednesday afternoon to prepare.

Chapter 3, Speaking / Role Play

- A: So how's the Grafton campaign coming along?
B: It's going very well. I'm actually ahead of schedule.
A: Really? That's great news.
B: It'll be ready by Friday.

A: Excellent. How about the presentation for Mr. Olsen?
B: That's running a little late.
A: How late?
B: Just a day or two. I'm waiting for some data from marketing.
A: I'll call Carol and remind her that we need the data right away.
B: Thanks. That would be great.
A: Well, keep up the good work.

Chapter 4

Chapter 4, Vocabulary 3

David: I'm very good about saving. I save 20% of my paycheck every month. I always think before I spend, and I only buy things I really need. My goal is to have enough money for a down payment on a house. So far I've saved over $25,000. I'm also saving 5% of my paycheck for my retirement. I'm only 30, but it's important to start saving now.

Katie: I'm horrible with money. I eat out with my friends all the time, and I love to shop for clothes and CDs. I have a good salary, but I don't budget it well. For example, I haven't paid my bills yet this month, and I have a balance of $4.50 in my bank account. I'm waiting for my next paycheck. I don't like living this way, but it's hard for me to change.

Chapter 4, Conversation 1

1. Have you paid the phone bill yet?
2. No, I haven't had time.

Chapter 4, Conversation 2

A: Your total comes to $55.70. Cash or charge?
B: Do you accept American Express?
A: I'm sorry, we don't. Only Visa or MasterCard.
B: No problem. Here's my Visa.
A: Thank you. Hmm ... Your card isn't working for some reason.
B: Do you accept checks?
A: Yes, we do. But I'll need to see a photo ID.
B: Here's my driver's license.
A: That's fine. Thank you.
B: Who do I make the check out to?
A: Garden Florist.

Chapter 4, Comprehension 1

A: Good afternoon, National Savings. Elaine speaking. How may I help you?
B: Yes, hi. I have a question about my checking account.
A: Your account number, please?
B: 783020405.
A: And your name?
B: Eric Ramos.
A: For security purposes can you tell me your password?
B: It's Hawaii.
A: Thank you. And what is your question, Mr. Ramos?
B: Has there been a deposit of about $2000 to my account today? That's my paycheck.
A: Yes, I see a direct deposit for $2020.50, posted today.
B: Great! Thank you. Could you also tell me my balance?
A: Yes, it's $5230.80.
B: Thank you.

Chapter 4, Speaking / Role Play

A: I'd like to deposit this check into my checking account.
B: Could you endorse it, please?
A: Oh, I'm sorry. I forgot to do that.
B: That's quite all right. I see this is your paycheck. Would you like to set up direct deposit of your checks?
A: Yes, that would save me a lot of time.
B: I can give you a form to fill out, or you can do it online from our website.
A: I think I'll do it online. Thanks.
B: Can I help you with anything else?
A: Yes, could I speak to someone about applying for a credit card?
B: Of course. Jill Patterson at the desk over there can help you.
A: Thank you very much.
B: It's my pleasure. Have a good day.

Chapter 5

Chapter 5, Vocabulary 4

1. Excuse me. Where's seat 23D?
2. Have your bags been in your possession at all times?
3. Would you like something to drink?
4. Please fasten your seatbelts in preparation for takeoff.

Chapter 5, Conversation 1

1. Did you have a good flight?
2. It was a bit rough because of the bad weather.

Chapter 5, Conversation 2

A: Good evening. Where are you traveling?
B: Rio de Janeiro.
A: Your passport and ticket, please.
B: Here you are.
A: How many bags will you be checking?
B: One. I also have one carry-on bag.
A: Your carry-on is too big. You'll have to check it.
B: OK. I'll just need to take one or two things out.
A: Here's your boarding pass. Your flight will be boarding at Gate 12 in one hour.
B: Thank you very much.

Chapter 5, Comprehension 1

A: Oscar, are you sure the tickets are wrong?
B: Yes, I am sure. Can you give them a call?
A: Yes, I'll give them a call. What's the number?
B: 484-5083
A: Got it!
C: Welcome to E-Travel. For reservations, press 1; for flight information, press 2; for customer service, press 3; ...please wait while I transfer your call to a customer service representative.
D: Welcome to E-Travel, this is Julie speaking, how can I help you?
A: Yes, hello Julie. There's a mistake on our tickets.
D: What seems to be the problem?
A: The dates are wrong.
D: And your name?
A: Ellen Hoffman-Ruiz and Oscar Ruiz.
D: One moment, please. Yes, here we are. You're booked on the March 9th flight returning March 16th.
A: The days are correct, but the month is wrong. We want to leave on April 9th.

D: OK. I've made the change. It will be reflected in the computer when you check in at the airport.
A: Thank you very much.
D: Have a nice day.
A: I can't wait for vacation!

Chapter 5, Speaking / Role Play

A: Excuse me. My mother has seat 12A and I have seat 22D.
B: You would prefer to sit together, right?
A: Yes, please.
B: Let me check to see what we have available.
A: Could one of us have a window seat, please?
B: I'm sorry, but there are no more seats available in coach.
A: But we really need to sit together.
B: Would you like me to check business class?
A: Yes, please do. I can use my frequent flier miles to upgrade.
B: I have seats 5A and 5B in business class.
A: We'll take them. Thank you.

Chapter 6

Chapter 6, Quiz 3

1.
A: Hey, Dan. Do you have time for a drink after work?
B: Sure. That sounds great.
A: A bunch of us are getting together at Lucky's Pub after the meeting.
B: I'll be there.

2.
A: How's the lobster?
B: It's delicious. How's your veal?
A: It's OK. But it's not as good as the lamb chops I had here last week.
B: Oh, I've had them. They're excellent.

3.
A: So, Megan, where are we with the Palmer account?
B: We're a bit behind schedule, but we'll be able to catch up next week.
A: And how about the budget?
B: It's looking good. We're still under budget.

4.
A: Your total comes to $89.50.
B: Do you accept credit cards?
A: No, I'm sorry. Just cash.
B: OK. I'll need to get some money from an ATM.

5.
A: Would you like a window or aisle seat?
B: Window, please.
A: Are you checking any bags?
B: I just have this one carry-on.

Chapter 7

Chapter 7, Vocabulary 2

1. It's wet and it's slippery out there this morning. Take it easy on the roads, and give yourself plenty of extra time to get to work.

2. Construction on Route 18 is causing major delays. Follow the detour signs from Exit 8, or plan an alternate route.
3. The President is in New York City today. Fifth Avenue between 55th and 59th Streets is closed to traffic. You'll want to take public transportation to get to any mid-town destinations.
4. There are eight inches of snow on the ground and it's still coming down. The roads will not be cleared in time for morning rush hour, so you should either stay home or use public transportation.
5. There's been an accident on Jefferson Parkway at the intersection of Livingston Avenue. Only the right lane is open. Try to avoid the area if you can.

Chapter 7, Vocabulary 4

1. I live in the city, and I take the subway to work. It takes about 30 minutes.
2. I carpool to work with two other people. We all live in the suburbs, and there's no convenient train or bus we can take.
3. I take the bus to work every day. I usually read a book during the trip, so I don't mind the commute.
4. I'm lucky. My job is twenty minutes from my apartment, so I can walk to work. It's great exercise!
5. I drive to work every day. It takes almost an hour, and the traffic is pretty heavy. It's no picnic.
6. I live pretty far from my job, but, luckily, I don't have to drive. There's a commuter rail station five minutes from my house.

Chapter 7, Grammar 2

1. Turn right at the light. Our office is on the corner.
2. Don't drive to work today. Take public transportation.
3. Pull over. Don't step out of your car.
4. Park in the garage by the bank.
5. Turn left on Orchard Street. We're the third house on the right.
6. Don't forget to leave early today. There's going to be a lot of traffic.

Chapter 7, Conversation 1

1. Why is the traffic moving so slowly?
2. There was an accident near Exit 12B.

Chapter 7, Conversation 2

A: How do you get to work?

B: I carpool.

A: Really? How many people are there in your carpool?

B: There are three of us. We all work for the same company.

A: Do you like it?

B: Yes, it's great because we can use the carpool only lane on the highway.

A: Is it much faster than the regular lanes?

B: Oh, yes. A lot faster.

A: Is there anything you don't like about carpooling?

B: It's not very convenient if you have to get to work early or stay late.

Chapter 7, Comprehension 1

A: Ellen, the Art Department did a terrific job. The brochure looks great.

B: I agree. And they worked very hard to finish on schedule.

A: Our client is going to love this.

B: I think so. Wait, here's exit 9. Is this the exit?

A: Let me see... yes. They said to take exit 9 and then take Route 18 North.

B: Ok. So we're taking Route 18 North now?

A: Yes. They said to stay on 18 North for about two miles and then take the Pine Street exit.

B: Well, here's Pine Street.

A: Now, make your second left onto Willow Lane.

B: OK, here we go.
A: It's the third building on the right, number 433.
B: There it is. Are you ready?
A: I'm ready.

Chapter 7, Speaking / Role Play

A: Hello?
B: Hey, where are you? Our presentation is in half an hour!
A: I know, I know. There was a major accident on Route 90. Traffic was blocked in both directions.
B: Is it moving now?
A: It's starting to move very slowly. I'm close to Exit 12. Are there any back roads I can take to work?
B: Exit 12 ... Hmm ... Is that the Laurel Avenue exit?
A: Yes. Yes it is. That's what it says on the sign.
B: OK. Take Exit 12. Drive down Laurel Avenue. At Mount Pleasant Street, turn left.
A: Oh, OK. I know my way from Mount Pleasant.
B: You should be here in about 15 minutes. I'll set everything up for the presentation.
A: Thanks a lot. I'll see you soon.

Chapter 8

Chapter 8, Vocabulary 3

1.
A: Good morning. QuickConnect.
B: Hello. I'm moving, and I'd like to shut off the phone service at my old address.
2.
A: Hello. Madison Management Associates.
B: Hi. I'm calling to ask about apartment listings in Madison.
A: We have several apartments available on Cherry Hill Road.
3.
A: Yes, hello?
B: Good morning, Mrs. Lynch. It's Joey Segal.
A: Hello, Joey. Is everything OK?
B: It's the refrigerator. It doesn't seem to be working right.
4.
A: Rapid Re-lo. Hello?
B: Yes, I'd like to schedule a move for January 1st. Are you available?

Chapter 8, Grammar 2

1. Henry, you should really see the apartment yourself before you rent it.
2. Laura doesn't have a lot of things, so she's doing the move herself.
3. Leo designed the plans for the house himself.
4. Did you hire contractors, or did you and Liz fix up the place yourselves?
5. Is an agent going to sell the Becks' house, or are they going to sell it themselves?
6. The cat watched itself in the mirror for almost an hour.
7. The movers never came, so Joe and I had to pack everything ourselves.
8. I had to clean out the basement myself.

Chapter 8, Conversation 1

1. How do you like the apartment on Beacon Street?
2. It's exactly what I'm looking for.

Chapter 8, Conversation 2

A: Hello. City Realty. How can I help you?
B: Hi. I'm looking for a one-bedroom apartment in Bloomfield.

A: We don't have any one-bedrooms at the moment, but we have a studio on Union Street.
B: Is it small?
A: No, it's actually very large with a separate kitchen.
B: Can you tell me a little more about it?
A: It has hardwood floors, new appliances in the kitchen, and a laundry room in the building.
B: It sounds great. How much is the rent?
A: It's $1100 per month, heat and hot water included.
B: Could I see it today?
A: Sure. I can show it to you this afternoon.

Chapter 8, Comprehension 1

A: Hi.
B: You OK?
A: I'm so tired. We moved offices today.
B: Didn't the movers do that?
A: That was the plan.
B: Well, what happened?
A: They came in and left some boxes in my office. I had to pack up the whole office myself.
B: Have you unpacked?
A: Yes. I had to do that by myself as well.
B: Sounds like you've had a really rough day.
A: Just tell me we never have to move again.
B: How about this? We'll move to a big house with six bedrooms and a swimming pool!
A: Do you promise I won't have to move everything myself?
B: I promise.

Chapter 8, Speaking / Role Play

A: How's the apartment search going?
B: I found a place on Cambridge Street just a few minutes from work.
A: That's great. You won't have to commute anymore.
B: I know. I'm going to really enjoy walking to work every morning.
A: So what's the apartment like?
B: It's a one-bedroom with a small room I can use as an office.
A: It sounds nice.
B: It's exactly what I was looking for.
A: When are you going to move?
B: February 1. I have only two weeks to pack.
A: Are you doing the move yourself, or are you getting movers?
B: I'm definitely getting movers. The last time I moved I hurt myself. Never again!

Chapter 9

Chapter 9, Vocabulary 3

1.
A: I see you have an advanced degree in economics.
B: Yes, I studied at MIT with Gerhard Müller.
A: Interesting.
2.
A: You have an impressive background in information technologies. Tell me about yourself.
B: I've been managing tech support teams for ten years now.
3.
A: Your portfolio is impressive. Did you start out in web design?
B: Actually, no. I began as a graphic designer for a magazine publisher.
4.

A: Tell me about your qualifications for the position.

B: I have an MBA and over eight years' experience following changes and developments in the field.

Chapter 9, Conversation 1

1. What are your qualifications for the job?

2. I've been managing a team of salespeople for the past five years.

Chapter 9, Conversation 2

A: Did you hear that Richard, our sales manager, is retiring?

B: Yes, I heard. Have you started a search for his replacement yet?

A: No, not yet. I was thinking we could try to promote someone here.

B: Who did you have in mind?

A: Maybe Paul Franklin or Joe Taylor.

B: They're both excellent candidates.

A: Yes, Joe is very popular among the sales team. What do you think of Paul?

B: He's a hard worker, but he's a little indecisive.

A: Yes, I know. And Joe? Any weaknesses?

B: No one is more reliable than he is, but he can be a little disorganized at times.

A: If we could join Paul's organizational skills with Joe's personality, we'd have the perfect candidate.

Chapter 9, Comprehension 1

A: So you got your undergraduate degree at Franklin College?

B: Yes. I have a major in Art History and a minor in Marketing.

A: Art History and Marketing. That's an interesting combination.

B: Well, I've always loved art. But I was also interested in marketing.

A: I see you also studied Graphic Design.

B: Yes I got a certificate in graph design at the Art Academy.

A: Wow, we've certainly been looking for someone with your educational background.

B: And I have been looking for a company where I can apply all of my skills.

A: Can I see some samples of your work?

B: Yes. Would you like to see my portfolio?

A: Mm hm.

B: It includes some marketing campaigns I've worked on as well as some projects I did in college.

A: This is very impressive, Yoshi. Your style is modern and original.

B: Thank you.

Chapter 9, Speaking / Role Play

A: So you've been a manager all five years at Harrison and Pierce?

B: No, I was hired as a market researcher, but then I got promoted.

A: Tell me about that.

B: Well, I worked on a very successful marketing campaign, and my supervisor decided I was ready for more responsibility.

A: How well do you handle large-scale projects?

B: Very well, I think. I'm currently managing a $1.5 million campaign for web, radio, and TV.

A: Nice. What's your greatest weakness?

B: I get completely caught up in my work sometimes and forget to eat, drink, or sleep.

A: It's important to work hard, but for creative work, you need to stay sharp.

B: I know. I'm working on that.

A: So, tell me, why do you want to work at Fargo?

Chapter 10

Chapter 10, Vocabulary 1

1. Hunting for deer is common in Marsh Creek Forest.
2. Every year the children build snowmen by the school.
3. If you take the boat out on the lake early in the morning, you catch more fish.
4. The first time I tried snowboarding, I broke my leg.
5. Water-skiing is not as easy as it looks.
6. Sunbathing is a relaxing outdoor activity.
7. When Barkley Lake freezes, the whole town goes skating.
8. The kids are building a sandcastle.

Chapter 10, Vocabulary 4

1. lake
2. forest
3. mountains
4. ocean
5. river

Chapter 10, Grammar 3

1.
A: How was your hiking trip?
B: Oh, it was so long.
A: What do you mean?
B: We walked over 12 miles in one day. I was exhausted!
2.
A: Did your flight to Los Angeles go OK?
B: Oh, don't ask. It was horrible.
A: Was the weather bad?
B: Yes, we were delayed 8 hours.
3.
A: Did you have fun at the beach?
B: Not really. It was so hot. I think it was 105 degrees in the sun.
A: Did you have an umbrella?
B: Yes, but it didn't help. I stayed in the ocean all day to keep cool.
4.
A: I had a terrific vacation.
B: I'm glad to hear that. What did you do?
A: I went surfing, sailing, and snorkeling.
B: Sounds like a lot of fun.
5.
A: Have you ever gone fishing?
B: Yes, it's so boring.
A: I know. You just sit and stare at the water.
B: You know, I've never actually caught a fish.

Chapter 10, Conversation 1

1. What outdoor activities do you like?
2. I like cold-weather sports like skiing and skating.

Chapter 10, Conversation 2

- A: This is the most relaxing vacation ever.
B: I know. I'm having such a good time.
A: What should we do today?
B: Have you ever been surfing?
A: No. Have you?
B: Yes, it's a lot of fun. Let's do it.

A: It looks a little difficult and possibly dangerous. I think I'll pass.

B: Well, then how about sailing?

A: Hmm ... Have you ever gone sailing before?

B: Lots of times. My father has a boat.

A: OK. I'll try it.

Chapter 10, Comprehension 1

A: Marta, are those pictures from your party?

B: No, I'm taking a photography class. This is my homework.

A: I didn't know you were interested in photography.

B: I love photography.

A: These are really amazing, Marta. You're really talented.

B: Thanks.

A: Where did you take these? It looks beautiful.

B: Michelle and I went hiking at the State Park. So I brought my camera along. The weather was fantastic.

A: I can see that.

B: It was one of my best hiking days ever.

A: Maybe I can come with you next time.

Chapter 10, Speaking / Role Play

A: Where should we go on vacation this year?

B: Let's go someplace warm.

A: Like where?

B: Maybe Bermuda.

A: You know I don't like the beach. I always get a sunburn.

B: But the kids would be so happy there.

A: And what about my happiness, huh?

B: Wouldn't you like to try water-skiing or sailing?

A: Sailing, huh? You know I've always wanted to try it.

B: And Bermuda would be the perfect place for it.

Chapter 11

Chapter 11, Vocabulary 1

1. How did you get hurt today?

2. Where are your injuries?

3. Are you in pain right now?

4. Have you ever had an X-ray before?

5. Are you taking any medications?

6. Do you have any allergies?

Chapter 11, Vocabulary 4

1.

A: What happened to you?

B: I think I slipped on some ice.

2.

A: Are you OK?

B: Yes. I just bumped my knee.

3.

A: Marie, what happened?

B: Someone bumped into me, and I fell down!

4.

A: Did you slip on the wet leaves?

B: No, I tripped on the curb.

Chapter 11, Grammar 2

1. Marlena hurt her back in the accident.
2. In a few minutes, everyone will be told what to do.
3. His arm was bandaged at the hospital.
4. Jane slipped on the wet floor.
5. The victim was taken to the emergency room.
6. Tanya has never been injured in an accident.
7. I have fallen on these stairs several times already.
8. The hospital will send us the bill.

Chapter 11, Conversation 1

1. I hope you'll be back on your feet soon.
2. The doctor said I could go home in a few days.

Chapter 11, Conversation 2

A: How are you feeling?

B: Not so well.

A: So what happened anyway?

B: I slipped in the bathtub and fell.

A: Are you badly hurt?

B: Well, I hit my forehead pretty hard.

A: Yes, I can see the bump.

B: And I also hurt my back.

A: So what does the doctor say?

B: He wants to keep me here another day.

A: Let me know if there is anything I can do for you.

Chapter 11, Comprehension 1

A: Does it hurt here?

B: Yes.

A: And here?

B: Yes.

A: Explain to me again what happened.

B: I was riding my bike on the crosswalk, and a car didn't stop at the stop sign.

A: Where did it hit your bike?

B: It hit my front wheel and I fell on my head.

A: Well, you're lucky you were wearing a helmet.

B: I know.

A: But I think your right leg is broken.

B: Are you going to take some X-rays?

A: Yes. Wait here, and I'll get a nurse to do that.

B: And what about my arm?

A: You'll definitely need some stitches on that cut.

B: I guess I won't be riding in the race this weekend.

A: No, I don't think you'll be riding for a couple of months.

Chapter 11, Speaking / Role Play

A: Hi, it's me. I'm OK, but I just had a small accident.

B: What happened? Where are you?

A: I was on 42, and the sun was in my eyes. I ran off the road and hit a tree.

B: Are you sure you're OK?

A: Yes, I'm fine. The airbag protected me.

B: What about the car?
A: That's a different story. The front end is completely crushed.
B: Shall I call for help?
A: No, I already did that. But could you come pick me up?
B: Sure. Where are you exactly?
A: I'm near Exit 6 on 42. You'll see the police car.
B: OK. I'll be there as soon as I can.

Chapter 12

Chapter 12, Quiz 3

1.
A: Hi, Martin, I'm surprised to see you.
B: I usually take the train when the weather's bad like this.

2.
A: Where would you like these boxes, miss?
B: In the living room, please.
A: And the bed?
B: In the other bedroom, please.

3.
A: Peter, what do you think about your job performance this quarter?
B: I think I'm doing great. I'm learning a lot and having a lot of fun.
A: Actually, Peter, your work has not been what I expected. You've been late with all your deadlines this month.
B: Yeah, I'm a little disorganized sometimes. But I'm working on that.

4.
A: Wow. The snow is perfect.
B: Do you have our lift tickets?
A: Right here.

5.
A: Are you OK, sir? Are you hurt?
B: It's my head.
A: Should I call 911?
B: No, thanks. I think I'll be OK.